

Keep monopolies out of public communications. I am horrified that this is even being considered.